WHERE DO WE STAND?

In the present issue appears a first list of B.E.A. Local Representatives. As it is just possible that you missed the article in our last issue, we may re-explain briefly that as part of its Extension Campaign the B.E.A. is appointing, wherever possible, a "Local Representative" of the Association, to visit enquirers and customers, keep statistics of progress, recruit Members, and generally be a local centre of Esperanto light. In numerous towns, now without groups, he will be able to put enquirers in touch with one another, and found the group already existent in embryo. When this plan was first tried in 1917, nothing could be done owing to war-time conditions. Now, however, the time is ripe, volunteers are crowding in, and we expect great things. If your town is still unrepresented, let us know that you are willing to work, and ask us for details.

This scheme is but one sign of the progress everywhere visible. New Groups are springing up, older groups are growing, Federations are covering the country. The members of the I.L. Extension League are working hard to increase the circulation and influence of our magazine. Each month shows a long list of new members. In the autumn we shall publish an Esperanto Diary, giving details of Groups, Local Representatives, and other similar useful information.

Progress! Life! Growth! Yes, we have indeed reason to rejoice. But in rejoicing, let each ask himself how far he has shared in the progress made, and what he intends to do to increase it.

To justify our reduced membership fee, we must have 1000 new members this year. We have made a good beginning with 500. Now what about the other 500? If only one member in three brought another, the thing would be done. Will you please try?

Our Guarantee Fund needs support. Read carefully the inset in this issue. Does this apply to you? If so . . .

One other point. Our Literature (as evidenced by our booklist, and the monthly list in The British Esperantist) is a thing of which we may be justly proud. Some of our best writers, and several publishing firms, are lavishly spending talent, time, and capital, in order to produce a plentiful and cheap supply of first-class literature in the language for the benefit of the Esperantist world—which remains thankless and unresponsive. Take, for example, Mosse's fine Biblioteko Tutmonda. For only 4/- a series of ten numbers will be sent by post to any address as published. One series has appeared already, a second is appearing now. 1000 orders at a minimum should be received from England alone, and even this small number would not be too creditable. Yet what are the facts? Not 100 orders have yet been placed in the whole Empire? What are our members doing? What are you doing? Have we no love for our language? No taste for good literature? No desire to improve? No soul above picnics and dances? You say with pride that the life of the language is its literature. True. And what have you done for it? Is it fair to expect any publisher to go on sinking immense sums of money on the production of books which you allow to remain—a dead loss—on his shelves? If you have the least real interest in Esperanto, play the game! Cut out the socials and the congresses—if you must! The literature, the life-blood of the movement, has the first claim on you.

BRITISH ESPERANTO CONGRESS, 1928 Newcastle-on-Tyne.

The Congress Committee has been elected jointly by the North-Eastern Federation and the Newcastle Group, as follows: President: R. Kearton, Treasurer: F. Sutcliffe, Secretary: A. R. Fairbairn, 21 St. Mary's Terrace, Ryton-on Tyne.

As Newcastle is a popular place for meetings of various organizations, and it is necessary to make arrangements as far ahead as possible, a provisional programme has already been arranged.

By kind permission of the Principal, Sir Theodore Morison, Vice-Chancellor of Durham University, the Congress will be held in Armstrong College. (Armstrong College is the modern part of Durham University).

Friday, May 25. The Akceptejo will open with an "Interkonatiga Koncerto."

Saturday, May 26. Morning and early afternoon,—visits to places of interest in the city. Fakaj Kunvenoj. Afternoon, at 4.30, Annual General Meeting of the B.E.A. At 7.30 Public Concert with a Northumbrian programme by the Prudhoe Gleemen, a first-rank male voice Choir.

Sunday, May 27. Morning,—Visit to Jesmond Dene, Newcastle's famous natural park. Communal Lunch. Afternoon—Diservo en Newcastle Cathedral. Evening—Concert.

Monday, May 28. Whole-day excursion to the Roman Wall. Evening—Congress Ball.

Further visits and excursions can be arranged for Tuesday, if necessary.

Offers of help for the Friday and Sunday concerts, donations to the Kongreso Kaso, promises for the Guarantee Fund, "aliĝoj" and suggestions, will be gratefully received by the secretary.
